

PINELLAS HOPE

A MINISTRY OF CATHOLIC CHARITIES DIOCESE OF ST. PETERSBURG

Pinellas Hope is a temporary emergency shelter program for over 250 homeless men and women, located on 20 acres in Clearwater. It provides a safe, caring atmosphere where residents are respected and encouraged to progress in a community setting designed to promote individual development and self-sufficiency. Assisted by volunteers, we provide a wide range of services on a daily basis to help in our clients' transition period, such as food, shelter, clothing, medical care, counseling, education advancement, transportation, employment search assistance, and goal-setting. We could not carry out this mission without the involvement of caring and compassionate volunteers from our community.
